CHECKLIST

Seller check checklist

What to check about a miner seller before any money moves.

THE COMPANY

- [ ] Find the legal name and number on the site and look it up in the official register.
- [ ] Look up how old the web domain is and compare it with the story on the site.
- [ ] Check that the address is a place the company really uses.
- [ ] Call or write to contact details you found yourself, not those in an advert or chat.
- [ ] Search for the name, the domain and the account holder together with the word scam.
- [ ] Read the newest reviews, and look for photos and dates that repeat.

Legal name _____ Register and number _____

Domain since _____

THE MACHINE

- [ ] Ask for a photo of the machine with today's date and the serial number.
- [ ] Check the serial and the warranty status on the maker's site.
- [ ] Get the exact version in writing: hashrate, power, cooling and voltage.
- [ ] Ask whether it is new, used, refurbished or not yet built, and when it leaves.
- [ ] Check that the power supply and cords are included.

Model and version _____ Serial number _____

Ship date in writing _____

THE TERMS

- [ ] Compare the price with others for the same version and the same condition.
- [ ] Add delivery, duty and tax. Ask who pays each of them.
- [ ] Read who answers for a damaged or dead machine, and how long you have to report it.
- [ ] Read who carries the warranty: the seller or the maker.
- [ ] Ask for the terms as a document with a date.

Price, everything included _____ Who pays duty and tax _____

THE PAYMENT

- [ ] The invoice shows the legal name you checked, a number and a date.
- [ ] The account holder is that same legal name, never a private person.
- [ ] For crypto, confirm the address over a second channel and compare every character.
- [ ] Walk away from gift cards, from a deadline in hours and from details that change by message.
- [ ] For a first order, ask what protection the payment method gives you.
- [ ] Send the proof of payment only to the address on the official site.

Account holder _____ Confirmed by (phone, email, date) _____

KEEP

- [ ] The offer, the terms and the product page as saved files.
- [ ] Every message, with dates.
- [ ] The invoice, the payment proof and the tracking number.
- [ ] Photos of the box and the label when it arrives.

NOTES

General guidance. Where your maker's manual or terms differ, follow them.
